

Kingston Preview media advisory

The Memorial Collective invites media to a hometown first look at its work in public education, memorial art, remembrance products and technology.

Date	Tuesday, October 13, 2026
Media preview	2:00-3:00 p.m.
Public preview	4:00-6:00 p.m.
Location	Fractal Workspace 623 Fortune Crescent #100, Kingston, Ontario
Admission	Free. Advance RSVP required. Free parking.

What to expect

Explore memorial art, remembrance products, Life's Song and public education, alongside previews of technology in development. The public programme opens with remarks at 4:00 p.m., followed by self-paced exploration, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, conversations and live memorial art. Demonstrations use clearly labelled mock cremated remains.

Media RSVP and interviews

Email Kelsey Barnes, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), at kelsey@thememorialcollective.com. Include your name, outlet, number attending and interview requests. Advance reply by Thursday, October 8 is requested.

Access and coverage

The venue is fully accessible; service animals and support persons are welcome. Quiet and camera-free areas are available. Coordinate filming and interviews with the team and respect guests who do not wish to be recorded. No products are sold or orders taken on site.

General enquiries: Stephanie Reid, COO · stephanie@thememorialcollective.com

Public RSVP: thememorialcollective.com/kingston-preview

All times are Eastern. Post-event release and photographs: within 72 hours of the event.